FROM THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK

Parent Teacher Conferences are scheduled for Tuesday 9th and Thursday 11th June. You can find the online booking instructions below. Its really important to keep to 15 minute time slots and follow social distancing etiquette. We like older students to take the lead in these meetings - sharing their achievements, their challenges, their learning goals and how they plan to achieve them.

John Parsons continues to work with our children around keeping themselves safe online. He will be at school on the 9th June and available to all our parents and caregivers in our staffroom from 3.15pm - 5.30pm. We hope that 'drop in' conversations will suit you better than a formal presentation. Parent Teacher interviews are available the same day so please take advantage of John's wisdom and experience.

Finally, good luck to everyone who is leaving us this week to take up positions on a new farm and thanks for all your support. If you know of any families with school children moving into our district, please do let me know.
